Viney Mittal, J. (Oral)

The allotment order dated November 29, 2005 in favour of respondent no.5 has been challenged by the petitioners before this Court.

Sh. Kanwaljit Singh, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners states that the petitioners have already served a legal notice, dated October 27, 2006, Annexure P-4 for redressal of their grievances but the said legal notice has not been responded so far.

In these circumstances, learned counsel has contended that at this stage, the petitioners would be satisfied if the directions are issued to respondent no.2- the Chief Administrator, PUDA, Mohali to take a final decision on the aforesaid legal notice.

Keeping in view the limited prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioners but without commenting upon the merits of the claim made by them, we dispose of the present petition with a direction to respondent no.2 to take a final decision upon the aforesaid legal notice

(Annexure P-4) within a period of 4 months from the date a certified copy of this order is received by affording an opportunity of hearing to a representative of the petitioner-Society and also by affording an opportunity of hearing to the representative of respondent no.5 by passing a detailed and speaking order.

Copy of the order be given dasti on payment of the usual charges.
